

Collective Prayer or Well Wishes for Adelia and Bryan Lee on Sunday, October 16, 2016 at 9:30 AM Hawaii Standard Time

Dear Friends of Adelia and Bryan Lee,

As you may know by now our fellow Flight Attendant Adelia Lee's husband Bryan is battling stage 4 malignant sarcomatoid nella small. When asked what we could do to help her and Bryan, Adelia's response was for prayers or well wishes.

We have asked Pastor Allen Cardines of Hope Chapel Nanakuli to ask his members to pray, send love and well wishes to Bryan on Sunday, October 16th at 9:30 AM HST. We are asking you to save the date and time to take a moment to say a prayer, send love and well wishes to Bryan in order to fight this Monster. Please spread the word, let's make a Miracle Happen.
